Welcome to the Why Waste Fair

This event has been brought to you by Why Waste, working in partnership with BBEF. Who are we?

Why Waste is a free, online exchange for business waste for Yorkshire & the Humber. We divert business 'waste' away from landfill, providing a 'match making' service to find reuse and recycling solutions.

Why Waste can help you:

- Reduce waste disposal & procurement costs
- Save on raw material & processing costs
- Reduce greenhouse gas emissions
- Create partnerships between local businesses & community groups

Our free service includes:

- Online waste listings –register your waste/needed items online or browse through current listings created by others
- Staff time to make exchanges happen.
- On-site visits – to assess waste and give advice on options
- Information on local recyclers
- Advice on waste legislation

Why Waste will be on hand all morning to help with your queries.

We are online 24/7 at www.whywaste.org.uk and the regional coordinator, Emma Hill can be reached on 01274 253440 / waste@beat.org.uk

Meet Emma today on stand 32

BBEF (the Better Business Environment Forum) is the Green Business Club for West Yorkshire.

BBEF has existed since 1992 and is here to help you to

- understand legislation
- find opportunities to tap into the 'green' agenda
- connect with other businesses
- be aware of environmental funding available
- find solutions to your environmental challenges

Helping businesses work efficiently and make cost savings is at the heart of what we do.

We coordinate a varied programme of events across West Yorkshire and circulate frequent news bulletins to keep you up to date on compliance issues, funding news, and local developments.

If you have any queries, BBEF will be on hand all morning. We assist Why Waste with local matches in West Yorkshire and are happy to help with questions on waste as well as helping with your general environmental queries.

Outside of this event, BBEF can be found online at www.bbef.org.uk and Sam Saxby (BBEF coordinator) can be contacted on 01274 206664 / sam.saxby@bbef.org.uk

Meet Sam today on Stand 31
